

MANY HURT BY POWDER BLAST

Homes Are Wrecked When Plant of Dupont Company Smashed by Explosions.

Haskell, N. J., Jan. 12.—While official information was lacking, it appeared today that no definite causes had been determined upon as to the origin of the powder explosion at the Dupont Powder company plant at Haskell, N. J., Friday night. About a dozen employees were slightly injured. No estimate of the damage was given by the officers who said that a statement would be forthcoming today from the company's headquarters at Wilmington, Del.

Haskell is the scene of a number of other explosions which have caused loss of life.

Only powder was being manufactured at Haskell. After nine explosions within ten minutes, the blast burned so brightly that it was visible at points many miles away. Several of the detonations were heard as far north as Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Haskell residents who fled from the scene found their homes wrecked when they returned today. In other towns deputy sheriffs spent the night guarding banks, public buildings and dwellings, where all glass panes had been shattered.

FORMER EL PASO IS HELD IN WEST ON MURDER CHARGE

Dan Duran, formerly of El Paso, who has been sought by the police of several states in connection with the murder of his father-in-law near Hollywood, Calif., several days ago, was arrested on January 10 at Fresno, Calif., and has been taken to Los Angeles to await trial.

Word to this effect has just been received by chief of police R. J. Zabricka.

BIG SNOW DELAYS TRAIN TO EL PASO FOR 10 HOURS

Train No. 3, the Golden State Limited of the El Paso & Southwestern line, due to arrive in El Paso at 2:40 p. m. from the east, was reported ten hours late Saturday afternoon. According to officials of the railway, it was delayed above Tucuman, N. M., on the Rock Island route. The cause of the delay is said to have been heavy snow.

EL PASO DAIRY ELECTS DIRECTOR AND OFFICERS

A. G. Foster was elected secretary, general manager and director of the El Paso Dairy company. Foster succeeds his father, the late Judge A. G. Foster, on the directorate. R. B. Stevens was elected president of the company, succeeding Judge Foster in that office.

Child Lost in Blizzard. Beach, N. D., Jan. 12.—Philomena, seven year old daughter of Joseph Kuhl, of this town, is lost in the blizzard near here in a driver's blizzard. A party of 15 persons, nearly the total male population of the town, is searching for the child. As the little girl left the bus which had brought her home from school the wind blew her from her dinner pail. She ran after it and was soon lost.

berg for $2000 and when the El Paso & Southwestern railroad came into El Paso, it paid $10,000 for the balance of the hill for right of way. But for the information of our creditors and those inclined to make a touch, I want to say we have spent all the money and, besides, we didn't get the big profit, for I think Ned paid Mr. Kohlberg about $28,000 for his portion of the hill.

"There have been some big fortunes made in El Paso realty. For instance, in 1888 you could have bought the present site of the Roberts-Banner block for $2000. I understand it was offered for sale at that price. A few years later Roberts and Banner paid Chas. DeGroot about $110,000 for it.

"And that there is plenty of business in El Paso to warrant its growth and the rapid increase in its realty value is evidenced by the rents being paid. In its palmyest days on El Paso street, I do not suppose the L. C. Lightbody company ever paid more than $200 per month rent, and for the last several years it has been paying about $400 per month for a smaller place on the corner of Main avenue and Texas street. The Santa Fe road used to pay $15 per month for a place now occupied by the United Bank and Trust company, and now we are paying $350 per month for quarters not half as large. The old Parlor saloon corner has just been leased to a jewelry company for $500 per month—$20 a day rent. That such rents can be paid is ample evidence that El Paso is doing a big business, and if the business justifies the high rents, then the rents justify the high values at which the property is held."

ANTHONY HOTEL PROPERTY IS TRADED FOR WINGO'S RANCH

A contract has just been signed by which T. M. Wingo exchanges his lower valley ranch for the Anthony hotel property of L. E. Booker, on West San Antonio street.

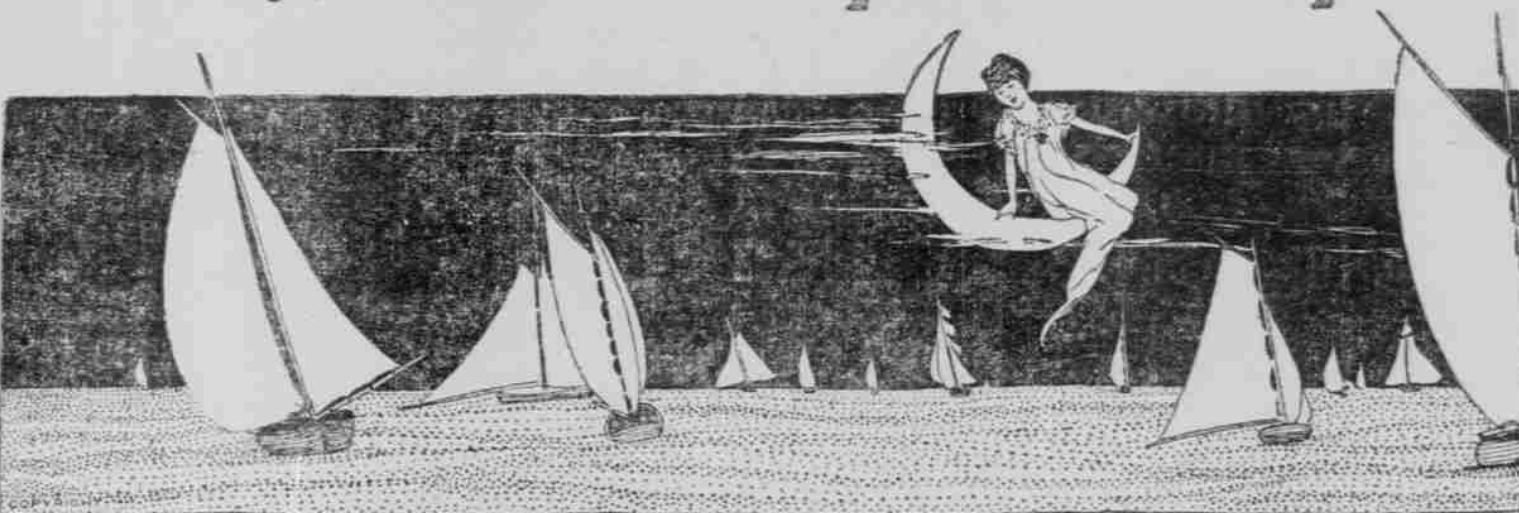

An even trade is made, according to the contract papers, each property being valued at $50,000.

The Wingo ranch, which is a mile and a half north of El Paso, contains 30 acres in peaches and has on it a herd of Holstein cows and a fine drove of Duroc-Jersey hogs.

BATHGATE RESIGNS.

George Bathgate, for the past three years local representative of Arbuckle, has resigned, but will not leave El Paso. Mr. Bathgate tendered his resignation Jan. 2, effective Jan. 8. He is not yet ready to announce his plans, but says he will continue to make El Paso his headquarters.
